SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

PEER EXCHANGE PROGRAM

ABOUT THE SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP PEER EXCHANGE PROGRAM

As part of the SEE Change project that is funded by the European Union, and implemented in Lebanon by OXFAM, COSV and BEYOND GROUP, COSV Lebanon is leading the Social Justice Incubation Program (SJIP) to understand how different types of social economy organizations can promote social justice in the country.

For that reason, COSV has incubated 21 selected collaborative initiatives that are categorized under community enterprises, NGOs in transition, public private partnership, and school enterprises. In addition to the running incubation program, COSV Social Economy Unit research team is conducting impact4policy analysis to understand the impact that the selected initiatives can have on policy in Lebanon.

Thus, COSV in collaboration with Catalyst 2030, is conducting a short-term peer exchange program to engage social entrepreneurs operating in the MENA region with the Lebanese incubated collaborative initiatives to share their experiences, challenges, and success stories and to contribute to a policy paper entitled "The Role of Social Enterprises in the advancement of SDGs in Lebanon and in the MEDITERRANEAN Region".

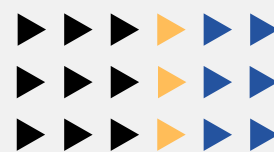

The participants are divided into five different groups based on the SDGs that they promote within their activities and each group will participate in three sessions during April, May, and June 2023. The online sessions will support the research team to identify how the scope of action of the participating social entrepreneurs helps in the advancement of SDGs while considering the economic and social values of their businesses. They will also help in explaining the place that their organizations occupy within their environment, community, and the State, and they will allow the research team to draw recommendations based on their experiences.

PARTICIPANTS FEEDBACK

"I enjoyed the sessions, although they were long and intense, and the most important thing is that there was enough room for everyone to participate."

~ Laura Jardin Peterson ~

"I was fortunate to participate in the program, and as a researcher who participated in several workshops and online sessions, I can say the program was very well organized and the sessions were perfectly facilitated. The surveys were relevant and complementary to the discussions and the analysis across the region will be helpful and beneficial to all social entrepreneurs, especially in terms of policies, challenges, and solutions."

~ Atef Ahmed ~

"The program was structured with experienced facilitators, and I personally learned a lot and already gained experience and collaborations."

~ John Wabwire Shikuku ~

"It was a great opportunity to be part of the sessions and to meet people with diversified profiles. The topics were relevant to our organization where the session on financing made us able to reconsider our practices and benefit from the experiences of others."

~ Suzanne Habbus ~

"We lack such programs in Syria and this program enabled us to enrich our experience and knowledge on SDGs."
